Bred and sold by Trelawney Stud, Ocean Park is a stallion the farm has a great affinity with. He continues to go from strength to strength with 10 individual stakes winners to date.

As a foal this colt was a good size with medium bone. He has continued to develop through the preparation and now stands over good ground.

This is the family of Shock Prospect who has won in NZ since the catalogue went to print.

"This colt has strong bone and has plenty to recommend him to trainers and syndicators alike."
