2024 READY TO RUN SALE HIGHLIGHTS

Expectations were exceeded at Karaka with tremendous results witnessed across two days of selling at NZB'S 2024 Ready to Run Sale, confirming the demand for proven racetrack results and quality New Zealand-prepared horses.

After Day One's blockbuster day including the record-breaking sale of a $1,650,000 two-year-old, momentum continued into the final day of selling which saw the total aggregate land at $38,593,500, a 10% increase on the 2023 record edition of the Sale. The clearance rate at the close of selling was a strong 78% with the average and median on par with last year's remarkable results.

A significant international presence was felt with Hong Kong-based buyers responsible for over $17.1 million in spend across 72 lots, while Australian buyers secured 67 lots for a total of $10.6 million in receipts. Emerging market Malaysia stamped their mark throughout the Sale, purchasing 40 horses for $3 million while the domestic market made a splash of $6.2 million for 57 lots. Other markets active included China who purchased 10 lots, and for the first time Mongolia signed up for five lots.

Taking the honours of leading buyer for the second consecutive year was prominent Hong Kong owner and businessman Mr Yeung Kin Man, purchasing a whopping 24 lots for $4,995,000.

The phenomenal results across the last two days were highlighted by the record-breaking colt out of Group One winner Shillelagh (Lot 174), from Kiltannon Stables' draft, which set a Southern Hemisphere record when selling for $1,650,000 to Te Akau Racing's David Ellis.

The colt's sire, I Am Invincible, was the leading sire by average after having four lots sell for an average of $675,000. Leading vendor for the eighth consecutive year in a row was Sam Beatson's Riversley Park, selling 35 lots for just shy of $7 million.
